

YOUR LODGE NEEDS YOU!

Traditional Burns Night Supper

SATURDAY 28TH JANUARY 7.00PM FOR 7.30PM DINING

With

Piper

Scots Grace

Pipe in the Haggis

The Address to the Haggis

Brief Robbie Burns History

A Burns Classic

Toast to the Lassies
And Response

The Immortal Memory

Many superb Scots tunes on the pipes and the chance to join in and sing a few famous tunes with the assembled throng – and finally for all to join crossed hands and sing Auld Lang Syne.

The piper will pipe in the Master and Wardens and their Ladies of Construction Lodge and other dignitaries from Grand Lodge and all other current Masters and their Wardens and Ladies of other Aldridge based Lodges present.

The Director of Ceremonies will announce each one in turn.

We hope you will bring family and friends to swell our numbers on this important charitable occasion.

One of you will depart
as a Laird or a Lady.

Menu

Scotch Broth

Haggis and Neeps (neeps is mashed swede and with a little pepper is lovely)

Roast Topside of Beef with Tatties (roast and boiled)
with Green Beans, Carrots and Peas
(and don't tell anyone because it isn't traditional – a yorkshire pudding)

Eve's Pudding and Custard
(Burns Night suppers do not have puddings but lassies present so OK)

Cheese and Biscuits
with Black Pudding and Red Onions
(don't ask me why but the last two items seem to be a requirement of our Black Country contingent)

Coffee or Tea and Mints

Vegetarian and other Dietary requirements will be dealt with as best we can and hope to everyone's satisfaction – just indicate on your reply form
